Eeril Heine case HW 1/21/75

The $110 slander suit was filed in federal district court in Baltimore in 1964, against Juri Raus, then of Hyattsville and then about 42. John Hanrahan did some of the Post's reporting, from Baltimore, and may have files and/or recollections. I'll check with him. Raus also referred to as Rauskauskas. In addition to Paul R. Connally he was represented by F. Barrett Prettyman. However, the reporting also gives Rauskauskas as one of Heine's lawyers, Ernest C. The other, Robert J. Stanford. There was a remand by fourth curcuit and there are indications of more than one affidavit from Helms.
